Restorative practices bring people back from red to green behaviour.

Non contracts prevent them to fall back to red behaviour.
They close the green – red border.

Restorative coaching makes people feel uncomfortable by read behaviour. And feeling about your behavior is a condition to change is uncomfortable.

so a surviving strength is activated and they get out on their own power (not because of the teachers help, so all the credits are his).

It’s much more than that, it’s the most terrible thing that could ever happen to you in your live and I’m gonna tell you why.

I have a problem!
My little boy suffers from anger, bad eating habits and lack of sleep. What can I do? Nothing.

He is just a failure.
