NON-(Aggression)CONTRACT

• Describes the very firm intention of a person to put a stop to RED behaviour in the next … (time)

• Breaking the contract results in a problemsolving sanction.

(You are at RED grounds and have to undertake action to become Green again).
PROBLEMSOLVING SANCTIONS

• In the sanction is laid down what someone must do after breaking the contract.

• It is no punishment. It is restorative and fulfilling the needs.

• It offers a second chance to try to reach the aims of the contract and thus to become Green again.

• Characteristic: When the sanction is performed it is to the benefit of all.
