

The 10th International Institute for Restorative Practices World Conference

IMPROVING CITIZENSHIP & RESTORING COMMUNITY

A 3-DAY INTERNATIONAL GATHERING OF PRACTITIONERS, RESEARCHERS, POLICY-MAKERS AND ADVOCATES FROM AROUND THE WORLD

Budapest, Hungary

7–9 November 2007

Danubius Hotel Flamenco

We invite you to attend our 2007
WORLD CONFERENCE ON RESTORATIVE PRACTICES.

This interdisciplinary conference will provide an international perspective on restorative practices theory and practice in a variety of settings, from education to social welfare to criminal justice.

The whole continuum of restorative practices will be discussed, from informal to formal, including restorative conferencing and circles, family group decision making, and restorative cautions and reprimands. These practices share the same underlying purpose: to build community, more effectively address wrongdoing and conflict, and empower people to make decisions about issues that affect them.

DAY 1 (7 NOV) will include plenary presentations simultaneously translated in English and Hungarian.

DAYS 2 AND 3 (8–9 NOV) will be in English only and will include presentations submitted by participants who responded to the Call for Presenters.

Come to Budapest in November and join with others who share a passion and commitment to restorative practices.

The IIRP has held international conferences across the globe, from Australia to the United Kingdom, the Netherlands to Canada and the United States. At these conferences, restorative practitioners from around the world have come to share their knowledge and achievements and to find encouragement, support and advice from others doing similar work.

PARTICIPANTS WILL INCLUDE:

- Social workers
- Probation officers
- Police
- Teachers
- Administrators
- Researchers
- Community volunteers
- Criminologists
- Counselors
- Peacemakers
- Academicians
- Judges
- Public planners
- Corrections officers
- ... and others
