Challenge for Faith Communities

What challenges do faith communities face today?

For you personally, what do you think is the greatest challenge?
Restorative Practice Framework

• Defining Restorative Justice

• Developing a Restorative Practice Framework

• Restorative Practice Applications in Faith Communities
BASIC TENETS OF RESTORATIVE JUSTICE (PRACTICE)

“Harm and Relationships”

Adversarial (Blame) approach:
“what happened, who is to blame, what punishment or sanction is needed?”

Restorative (Relational) approach:
“what happened, what harm has resulted and what needs to happen to make things right?”
Restorative Practice Framework
Your Faith Community

You are approached by a someone who has expressed an interest in joining your faith community. They ask you the following questions:

- What has your faith community got to offer?
- How does your faith community reflect its beliefs and values in their every-day lives?
- What do you personally get out of it?
Someone You Respect

Think of a person in your faith community that you respect.

What allows you to feel this way?

In a word, what is special about this person?
Those We Respect

They had the following qualities:

• Listened
• Empathised
• Honest/integrity
• Open
• Respectful
• Showed interest
• Made time
• Firm and Fair
• Encouraging

• Challenging
• Set clear boundaries
• Non judgemental
• Accepting
• Believed in you
• Used humour & were fun
• Created learning environment
• Affirming
• Apologised - vulnerable

• Were real
• Shared their story
• Loving
• Compassionate
• Consistent
• Explained their actions
• Realistic
• Predictable
THE PERSON WE RESPECT

What has the list of personal attributes got to do with values?
The person we respect is generally fair in how he/she interacts with you.
You also know ‘where this person is coming from’.
What does being fair involve?
How do others know ‘where you are coming from’?

Fair Process
The Central Idea...

‘….individuals are most likely to trust and co-operate freely with systems - whether they themselves win or lose by those systems - when fair process is observed.’

Engagement: An opportunity to be heard.

Explanation: Everyone is involved and understands why final decisions are made.

Expectation Clarity: Once decisions are made, new rules and expectations are clearly stated.

THE PERSON WE RESPECT

You also know ‘where this person is coming from’. What did the person do for you to have this understanding? How do others know ‘where you are coming from’?

Adapted from Social Discipline Window - Paul McCold and Ted Wachtel - 2000
THE PERSON WE RESPECT

This person always made me feel okay about myself, even when I did the wrong thing.

How would the person do this?

‘Where individual wrong doers are confronted (SHAMED) within a continuum of respect and support, then a process of REINTEGRATION can begin’.
Braithwaite’s Hypothesis

ALLOWS:
The act (unacceptable behaviours) to be rejected because they failed to reach expectations or standards

WHILST:
Acknowledging the intrinsic worth of the person and their potential contribution to society.

“Hate the sin, love the sinner”
Reintegrative Shame V Stigmatising Shame
Inappropriate Behaviour

Informal / personal
(engaging & challenging)
Reintegrative Shaming

Formal/impersonal
(confrontational)
Stigmatising Shaming

Ceremony of restoration & re-acceptance

Out-casting
THE PERSON WE RESPECT

This person always attempted to engage me in respectful ways.

When I did the wrong thing, this person challenged me in a way that allowed me to reflect on my behaviour but at the same time, allow me to feel okay about myself?

How would the person do this?

Restorative Questions 1

When challenging behaviour, why would the following questions consistently achieve ‘fair process’?:

• What happened?
• What were you thinking at the time?
• What have you thought about since?
• Who has been affected by what you did?
• In what way?
• What do you think you need to do to make things right?
Restorative Questions 11

Why would these questions assist, those harmed by other’s actions, experience ‘fair process?’:

- What did you think when you realised what had happened?
- What impact has this incident had on you and others?
- What has been the hardest thing for you?
- What do you think needs to happen to make things right?
Acting in Restorative Ways

You are likely to act ‘restoratively’ if you are able to integrate the following elements and values in your daily life:

- Look to understand harm and its importance in relationships.
- Act consistently in fair and just ways.
- Work ‘with’ others by establishing clear expectations and interacting respectfully.
- Differentiating between the person and their behaviour.
- Engage others using restorative questions.

Restorative Justice & Hosting Is Grounded In The Belief

• That each and every person has God-given worth
• That no one is disposable
• That human conflict and harm can be most effectively addressed by attending to the healing of all those persons affected
Conferencing With Hosts

Why Hosting?

- A grassroots initiative grounded in community
- Tangible way for faith communities to care for larger community
- Draws on ancient concept of providing sanctuary
Conferencing With Hosts

Rationale

• Many Faith communities have belief system and facilities to serve as hosts
• suitable host site affirms role in helping to bring healing to larger community
• a safe, comfortable place during time of stress and vulnerability.
Conferencing With Hosts

Rationale

• trained hosts offer hospitality and organize logistics for conference
• an outside person usually is facilitator
• to encircle the conference circle with a circle of care
Conferencing With Hosts

Qualities of Host Sites

Conferencing With Hosts

Hosting Co-ordinator

• experienced host who receives initial call from a facilitator
• recruits hosts for each conference
• oversees hosting program and training needs
Conferencing With Hosts

Current Developments:

• Ontario Multifaith Council is partnering with Salem, a longstanding Christian based counselling agency, to educate, train and support hosts for conferencing

• OMC is providing the model and the trainer, and a multifaith network and Salem will provide funding and continuing support for the process
Conferencing With Hosts

Current Developments:

• Interested faith communities are being sought
• OMC trainer will train local trainers from interested faith communities who will provide periodic trainings as needed
• Salem will provide initial mentoring, regular check-ins with host coordinators, ongoing follow up and advice, and keep statistics on hosting
Conferencing With Hosts

Current Developments:

- Halton Region west of Toronto is the location of initial OMC/Salem endeavour where there is a strong multifaith collaboration.
- Halton Regional Police sponsor a precharge restorative conferencing program.
- Six to Eight host sites are in development.
Conferencing With Hosts

Current Developments:

• The Barrie/Orillia area north of Toronto also is initiating the OMC – Salem model

• Other areas will be gradually brought on board as the opportunity arises

• The vision is to have all parts of the province provide hosting through the Regional Multifaith network
Conferencing With Hosts

Hosting Provides:

• a tangible way for faith communities to live out their calling to community
• a place of sanctuary
• context for healing caused by wrongdoing
