

MARY FINDS SOME MONEY

Using restorative practices to address wrongdoing.

International Institute
for Restorative Practices

Mary Finds Some Money

Mary was coming home from school one day.

She found some money on the sidewalk near her home.

She thought about what she could buy.

Mary did not tell her mom about the money.

Instead she hid the money
in the desk in her room.

The next day she spent some of the money.

She also looked at a toy catalog to decide how to spend the rest of HER money.

Later she heard her neighbor tell her mom...

...that he had lost the money for his family's vacation.

Mary did not feel good about what she had heard but still said nothing to her mom.

MARY FINDS SOME MONEY

- What do you think of what Mary did?

MARY FINDS SOME MONEY

- What do you think of what Mary did?
- Who do you think will be affected (upset or hurt) when they find out what she did?

The people hurt or upset by what Mary did were:

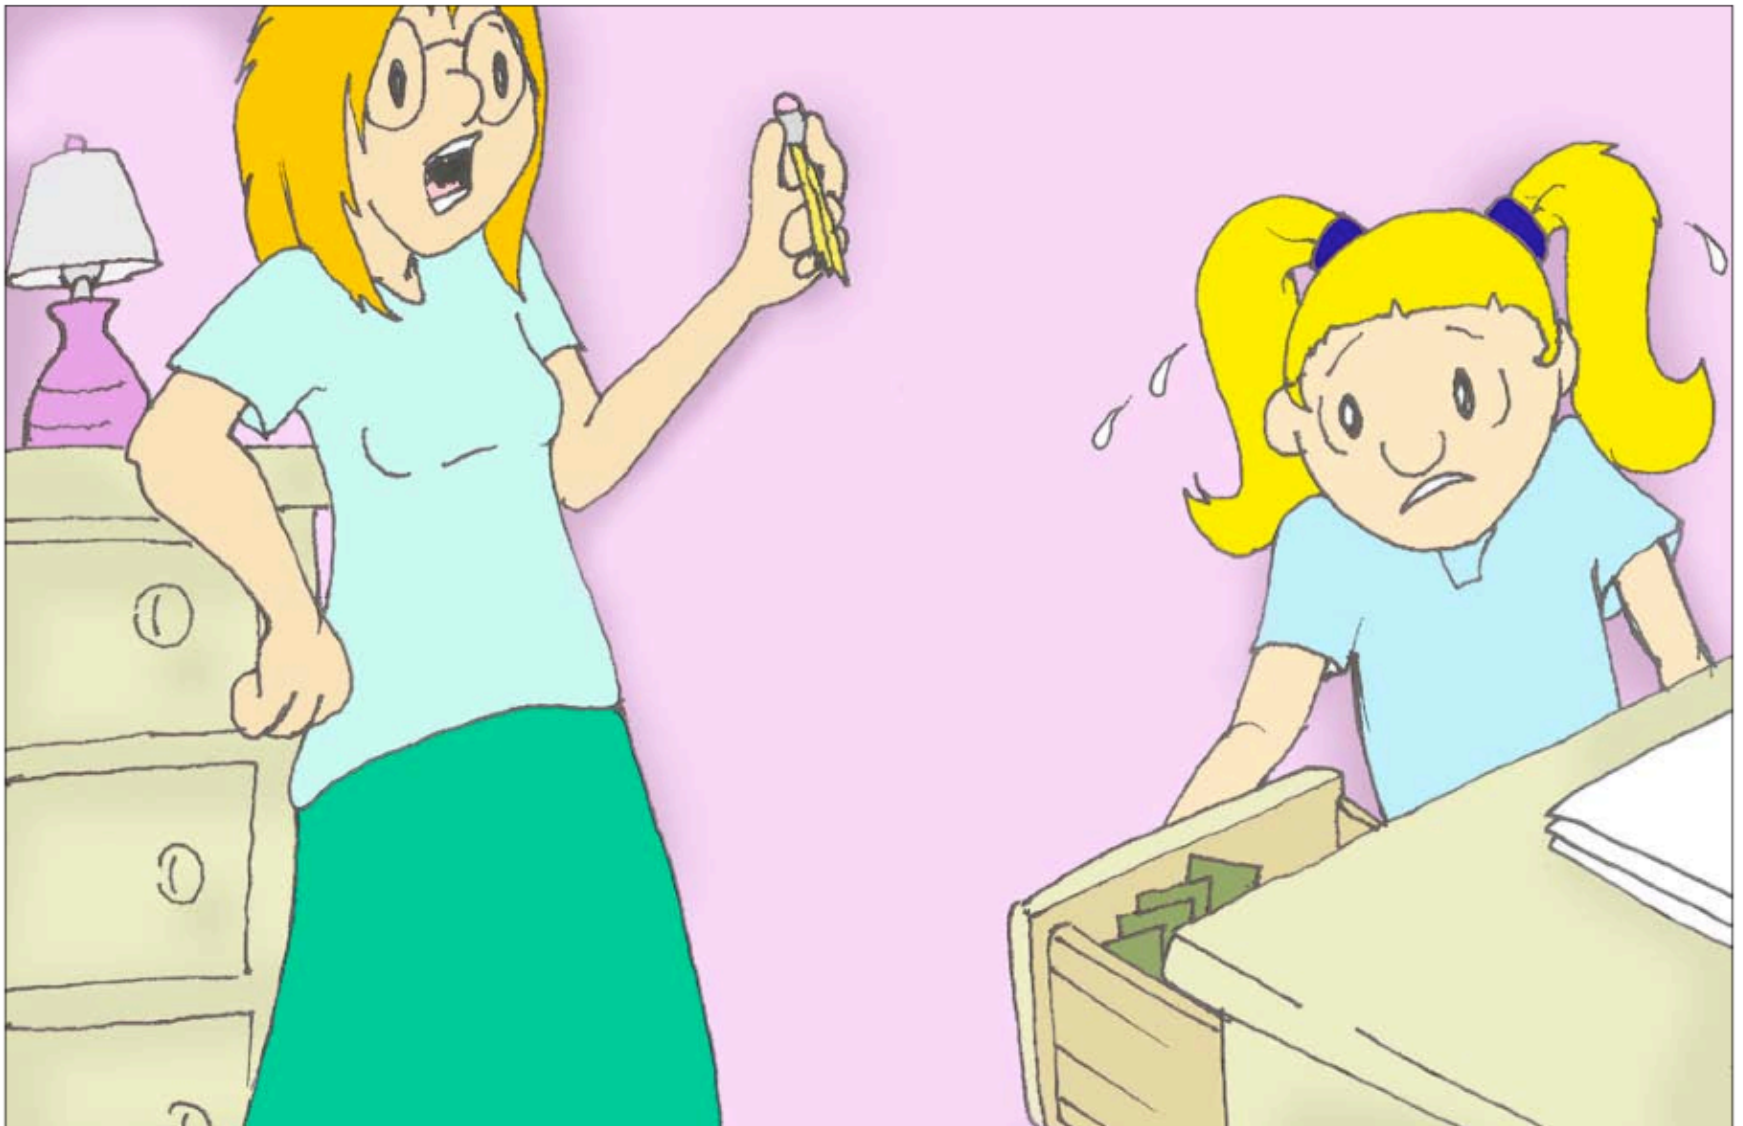

The people hurt or upset by what Mary did were:

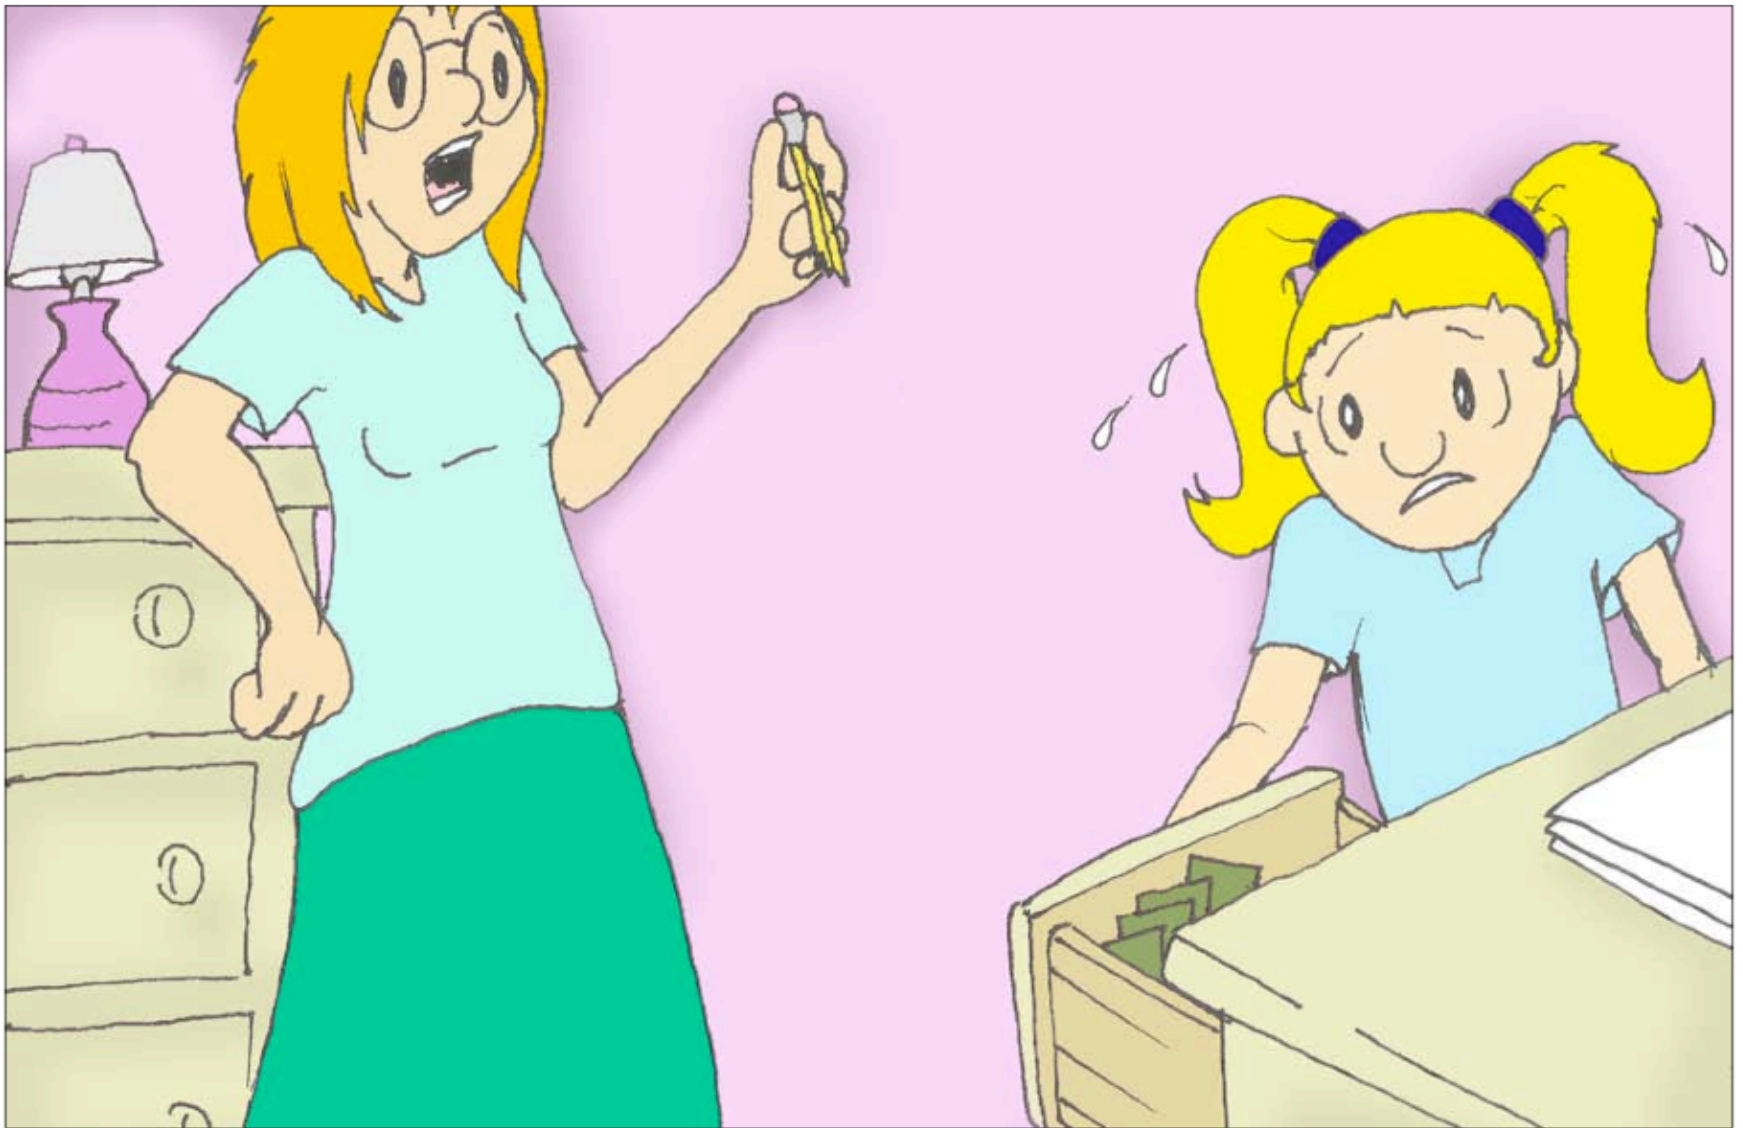

Mary's family – mom, dad, brother and grandma.

The neighbors – mom, dad and daughter.

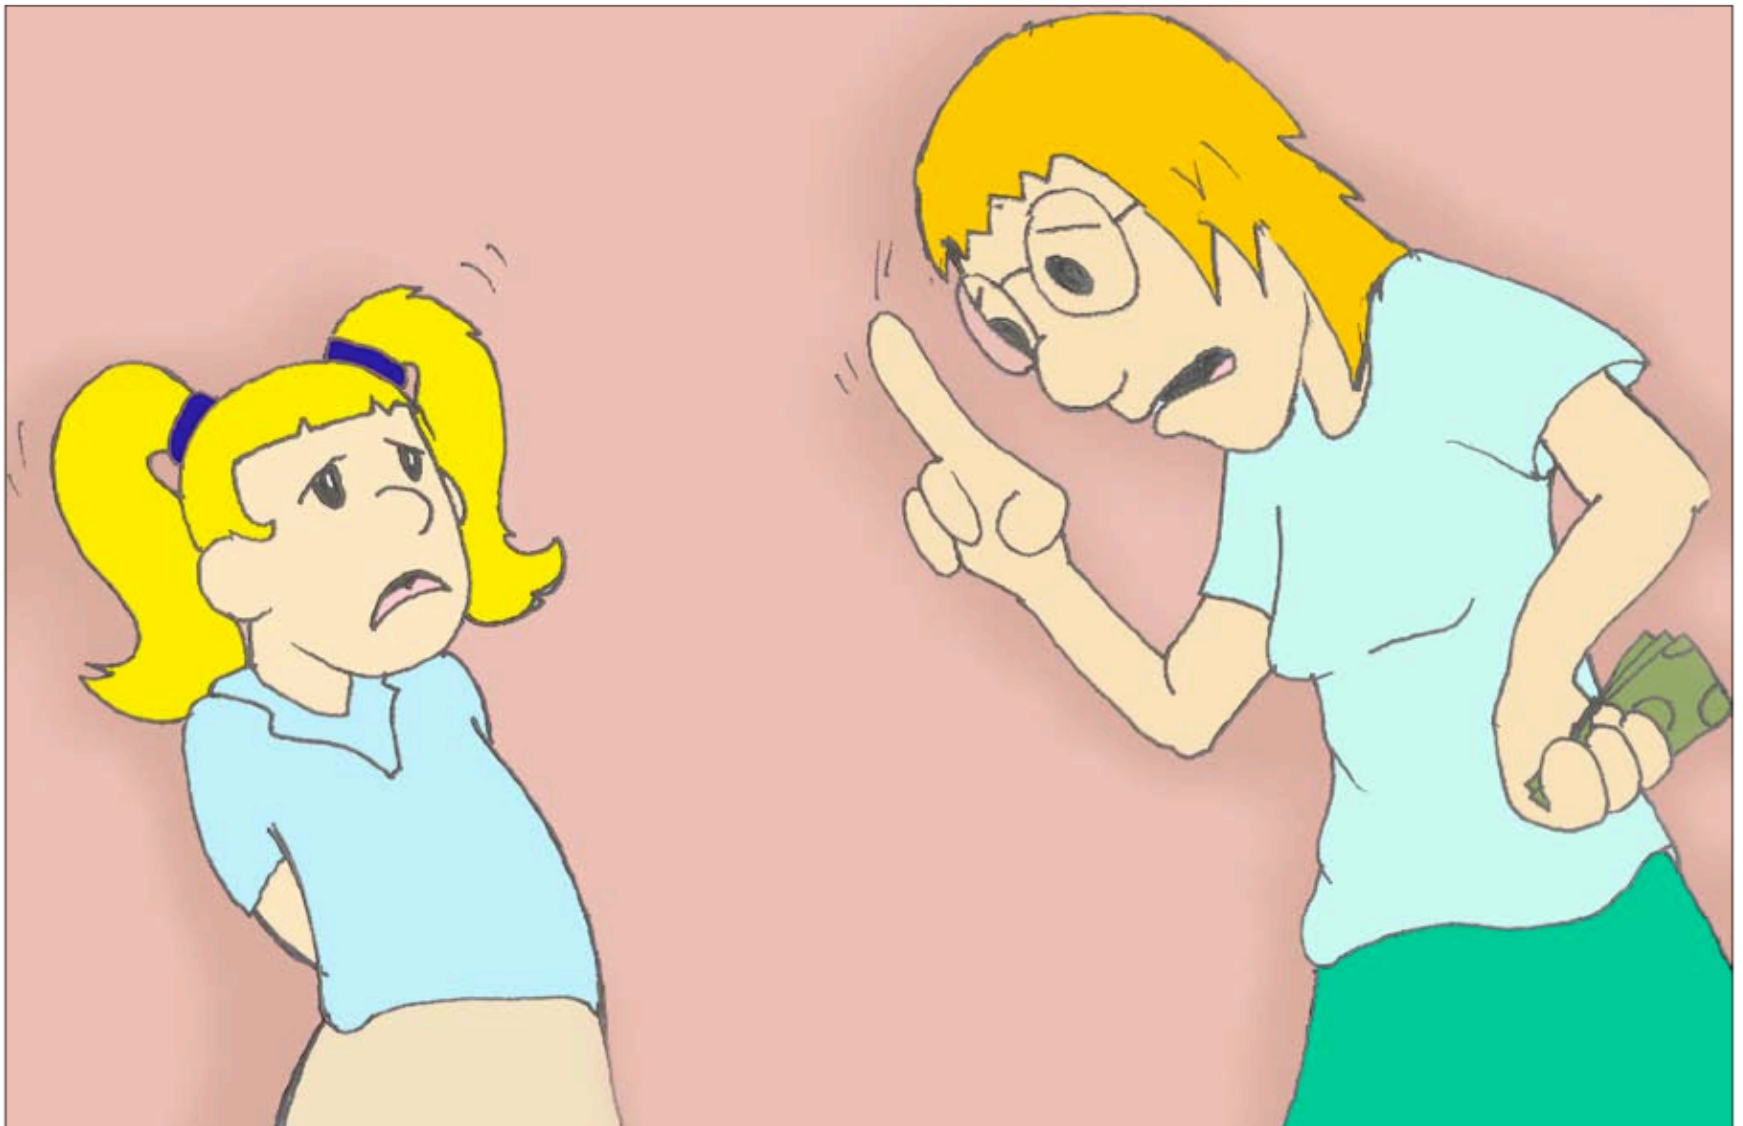

The people hurt or upset by what Mary did were:

The next day when Mary's mom asked to borrow a pencil...

...she saw the money in Mary's desk.

Mary admitted that she had found the money and had spent some of it.

How do you think Mary is feeling
now?

How do you
think Mary
is feeling
now?

How is her mom
feeling about what
Mary did?

How do you
think Mary
is feeling
now?

How is her mom
feeling about what
Mary did?

What should happen to Mary?

Mary's mom sent Mary to her room.

MARY FINDS SOME MONEY

- What does Mary's mom want her to do in her room?

MARY FINDS SOME MONEY

- What does Mary's mom want her to do in her room?
- What will Mary really do while she is in her room?

How does this help Mary understand who she has hurt?

How does this help Mary understand who she has hurt?

What does Mary need to do to make things right?

Mary's parents asked Mary
what she should do to make things right.

Mary's parents asked Mary
what she should do to
make things right.

Mary said that she should give the
money back and say that she was sorry.

Mary's parents asked Mary
what she should do to
make things right.

Mary said that she should give the
money back and say that she was sorry.

Her dad and mom said they would arrange a meeting so she can do that.

Mary's dad told the neighbor what happened and set up a meeting between their two families.

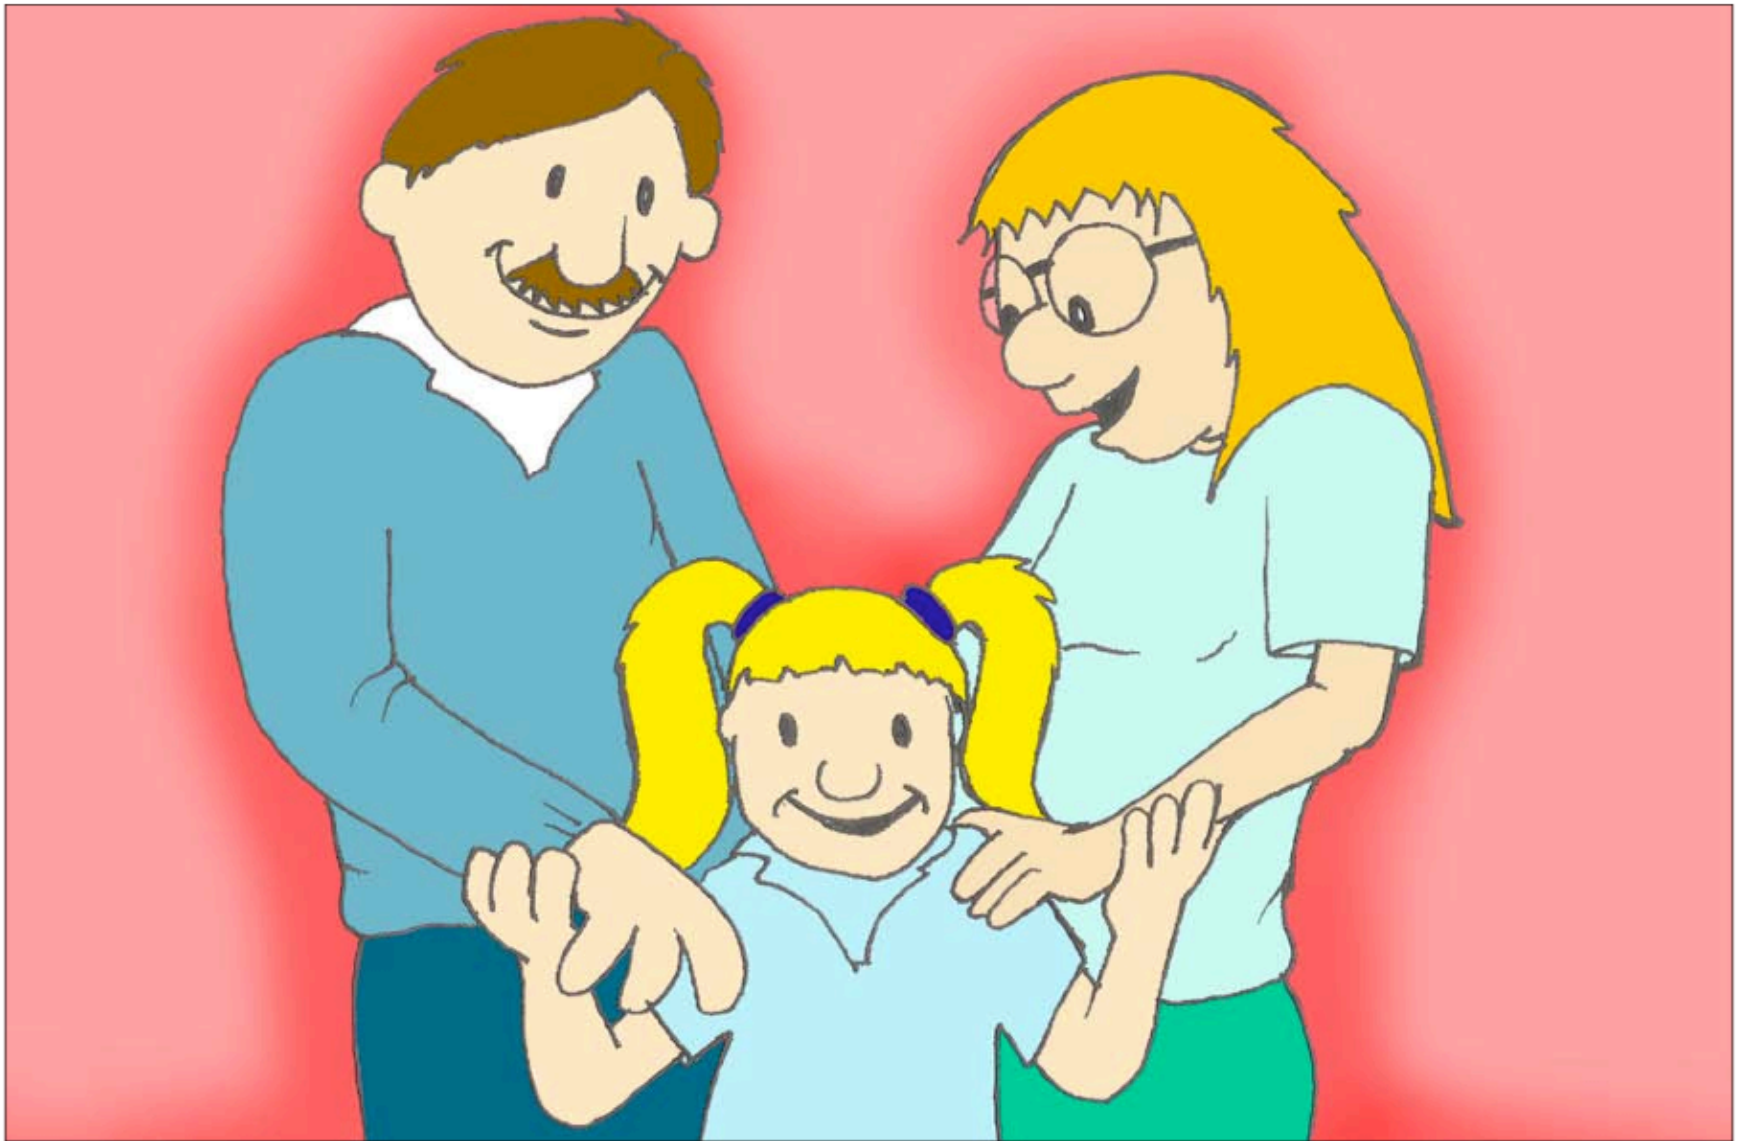

The Meeting

MARY FINDS SOME MONEY: THE MEETING

- Who should speak first?
- What questions should be asked?
- What would you expect to happen in this meeting?

Mary returned the money to the neighbors and told them she was sorry.

How do you think Mary's parents are feeling now?

MARY FINDS SOME MONEY: PROCESSING

- What did Mary learn from this experience?
- What helped this story have a happy ending?
- If Mary had just been punished and nothing else happened, what sort of ending would the story have?