

Pepper Black

Bibliography for a selection of information on some of the current multi-disciplinary approaches to trauma:

- Damasio, Antonio R., New York, Self Comes to Mind, Pantheon Books 2010
- Frederick, Ann, Levine, Peter, Waking the Tiger and Healing Trauma, Berkeley, CA, North Atlantic Books, 1997; 2013
- Goenka, S.N. The Art of Dying, Vipassana Publications, Onalaska, Washington 2014
- Hammond, Zaretta Culturally Responsive Teaching and the Brain, Sage Publications, London, England, 2015.
- Hart, Sura, The No Fault Classroom, Puddle Dancer Press, Seattle, WA 2009
- Hernandez-Arriaga, Belinda, "Trauma in Immigrant Children" 2014 presentation
- Kline, Maggie, Trauma Through a Child's Eyes, Berkeley, CA, North Atlantic Press First edition, 2007
- Madanes, Chloe, Relationship Breakthrough, Recovering a Lost Memory, Pp. 135-140, Rodale Press, New York, NY 2008.
- Martinez, Mario, Mind Body Code, Sounds True, Boulder, CO, 2014
- Rosenberg, Marshall, The Surprising Purpose of Anger Beyond Anger Management, finding the Gift, Puddle Dancer Press, Encinitas, CA, 2005
- Sapolsky, Robert, Why Zebras Don't Get Ulcers, Holt Paperbacks, New York, NY. 2005
- Van der Kolk, Bessel, The Body Keeps the Score, Viking Press, New York, N.Y, 2105
- Weir-Soley, Donna Aza, The Woman Who Knew, a Book of Poetry, Finishing Line Press, Georgetown, KY, 2016.