

Reducing Delinquent Placements

Restorative Reporting Centers

History of Restorative Reporting Center (RRC)

Changes in placements for offenders

Other models of evening reporting centers

Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency Grant

Program Development

- Engagement
- Looked at other programs
- What would make an ERC restorative?
- Parent involvement
- Stakeholder voice
- Accountability
- Support positive changes

What is the RRC

- Jerry's story
- How the RRC supports change
- Identified processes like FGDM
- Offering opportunities for success

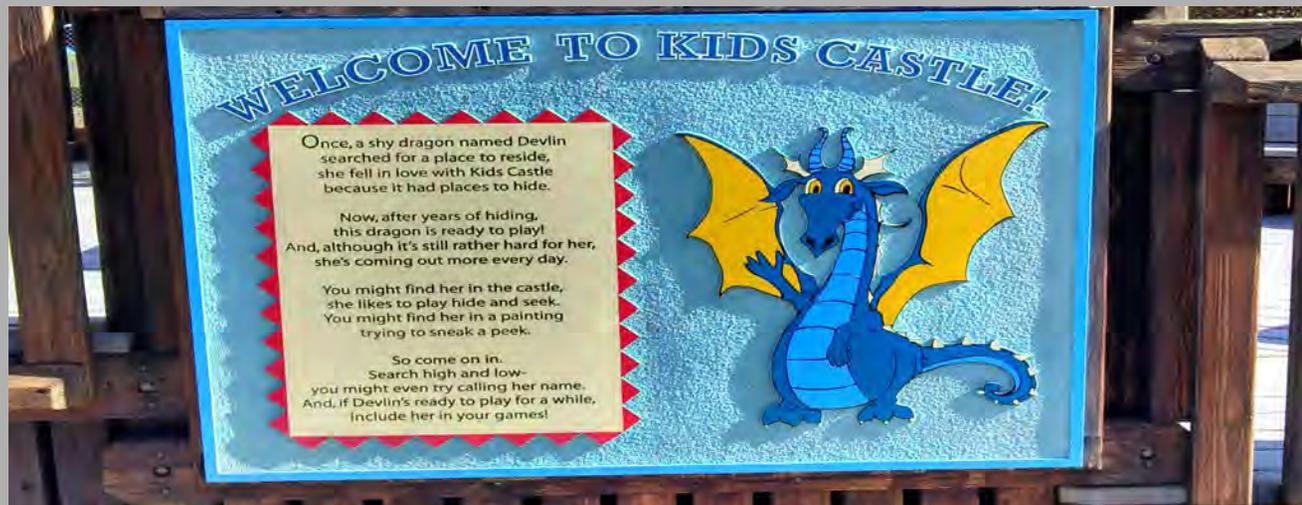

Outcomes

- 70% of the high risk to offend youth are completing successfully
- Of the 70%, 75% have not committed a crime or violation at 6 months.
- 281 kids have participated in the program as of 7/1/13

Looking Ahead

- How can we improve
- Interesting halfway outcome
- Introducing restorative interviewing
- Aftercare
- Dose and Duration

- Pictures from Kids Castle Community Service Project in Doylestown, Bucks County, PA

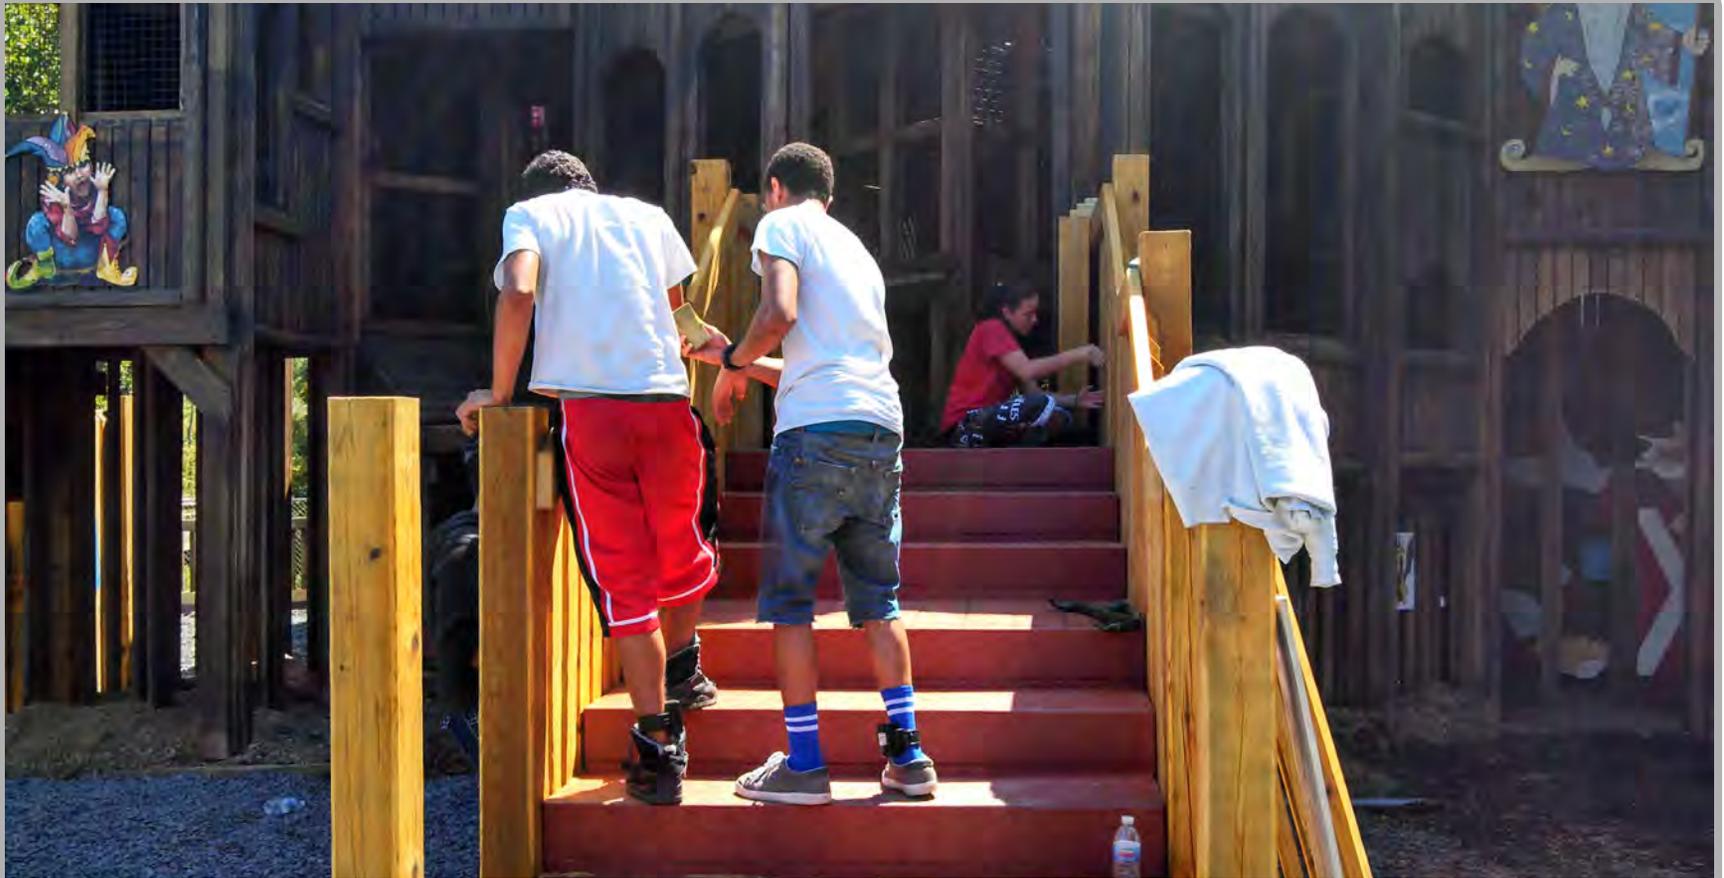

- Creating restorative programming is more about the how than the what. How can we develop environments where people learn, grow and change?
- Questions???

Jerry Bradley, CADC, CCDP
Jerrybradley@csfbuxmont.org

Craig Adamson, Ph.D., CADC
craigadamson@csfbuxmont.org