

INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTE FOR
RESTORATIVE PRACTICES
EUROPE

Meeting Needs: Managing Fears and
Expectations in the Conferencing
Sensitive and Complex Cases

Budapest, Hungary - 8-10th June 2015

Presented by: John Boulton & Les Davey
IIRP Europe

Case Study

As a group, consider the following questions:

- ‘Who has been affected and how?’
- ‘What are their needs?’
- ‘What might help meet those needs?’
- ‘What are the implications for the organisation/s?’

Circle Discussion:

- Making Contact
- Power Issues
- Model/Style of Intervention
 - Co-Working?
- Preparation
- The Meeting

Q & A's

Training and Further Information

- www.synrj.uk (An IIRP Europe Partner Organisation)

As well as their own programmes focused on offending behaviour and families, SynRJ delivers 'Restorative Practices: An Anti-Bullying Strategy' in partnership with IIRP Europe

Working Together for Safer Communities